DiaMine Explorations Inc. Contributes Two Chapters to Investment Book

June 29, 2006 – DiaMine Explorations Inc. (DIEXF) is pleased to announce the Companies contribution to the 2nd edition of The Handbook of Personal Wealth Management. The UK-based publishers, Kogan Page, are specialists in Business and investment publications. The book is endorsed by the Institute of Directors in Great Britain. The editor, Jonathan Reuid, graduated from Oxford University and is an experienced international business development manager, having worked in many EU countries in senior line and staff management positions.

Kogan Page invited DiaMine Explorations Inc. to contribute the information and co-sponsor the publication in order to educate their readers about the development of the Canadian diamond-mining industry and the opportunities available to investors. Diamond mining has become an interesting topic for investors because of the high profit margins, the long-term decreasing supply situation and the increasing demand for diamonds. The book also contains information on investment strategies, basic investment principles, taxation and insurance and covers various asset classes, such as stocks, bonds, real estate and hard assets.

DiaMine Explorations Inc. is a Canadian exploration company focused on exploring and developing diamond mining interests in the strategic kimberlite regions of Canada. The Company's exploration programme and team of highly specialized experts will concentrate on securing new opportunities for further exploration development while utilising capital allocation analysis and advanced geophysical technology to maximise returns from its current holdings.

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENT

This news release contains certain statements that may be deemed "forward-looking statements". All statements in this release, other than statements of historical fact, that address events or developments that the Company expects to occur, are forward looking statements. Forward looking statements are statements that are not historical facts and are generally, but not always, identified by the words "expects", "plans", “anticipates”, “believes”, “intends”, “estimates”, “projects”, “potential” and similar expressions, or that events or conditions “will”, “would”, “may”, “could” or “should” occur. Although the Company believes the expectations expressed in such forward-looking statements are based on reasonable assumptions, such statements are not guarantees of future performance and actual results may differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause the actual results to differ materially from those in forward-looking statements include market prices, exploitation and exploration successes, and continued availability of capital and financing, and general economic, market or business conditions. Investors are cautioned that any such statements are not guarantees of future performance and actual results or developments may differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking statements. Forward looking statements are based on the beliefs, estimates and opinions of the Company’s management on the date the statements are made. The Company undertakes no obligation to update these forward-looking statements in the event that management’s beliefs, estimates or opinions, or other factors, should change.

These statements are based on a number of assumptions, including, among others, assumptions regarding general business and economic conditions, the timing of the receipt of regulatory and governmental approvals for DiaMine’s proposed transactions, the availability of financing for DiaMine’s proposed transactions and exploration and development programs on reasonable terms and the ability of third-party service providers to deliver services in a timely manner. The foregoing list of assumptions is not exhaustive. Events or circumstances could cause results to differ materially.
